How I Survived Being a Girl is a wonderful book for girls and some boys. It's a hilarious book to read!!!! It talks about a girl named Carolyn and how she is the only girl in Reviews: Mar 13, How I Survived Being a Girl is a very poorly written, sorry-excuse for a coming-of-age story about year-old Carolyn who acts like a two-year-old. Sandwiched between two brothers, she thinks she should act like the boys and shuns dresses, frilly bows, and dolls/5. Before I read How I Survived Being a Girl I thought it would be about a 16 year-old girl traveling around the world with only boys. It turns out that I was wrong. After I read the book I felt like I was Carolyn, the girl. Everything takes place in a little neighborhood. Carolyn, the main character, tells you about her life being a tomboy/5(12). Carolyn is a girl with strong opinions. On being a girl: `stupid. Wearing dresses: `only when forced, and then with shorts underneath. Summer nights: `make you feel .
