Some would say that by a certain age, people start to feel an itch to settle down and tie the knot, moving from "bachelor" status to "settled down with a family" status. The urge to swipe left and. It wasnt until I stumbled upon the Boston Magazine article Single By Choice that I realized I wasnt alone. I was just one of many in a new generation of women who were choosing to stay single. At the same time, no one makes it a goal to be single forever. We all want love; we all want a partner to share our lives damiadenuga.com though that is the goal, a lot of us mistakenly go about attaining the thing we want so much in all the wrong ways. 17 Reasons You Should Stay Single Forever Jul 24, By Michelle Soriano While there may be pluses to being in a relationship, it can also be a bit overrated. Being single gets a bad rap. Far too many people think of it as temporary pit stop on the road to being properly coupled up. But for plenty of us -- especially those who are divorced or moving on from a long-term relationship -- being single isn't just a relationship status, it's a choice we willfully make.
