The Spice Box is the first in series of mysteries that apparently aren't always going to have the same 'detective'. The Spice Box starts with Bridget Heaney, a young Irish immigrant, starting as an assistant cook in the household of a wealthy Jewish-American department store owner/5. The Spice Box is an interesting look at 's New York life and the differences between the serving class and their employers. Temple has also included some delicious mouth-watering recipes. While the novel and its characters are somewhat predictable and formulaic, The Spice Box is a satisfying and enjoyable read and worth the damiadenuga.coms:
